INTERNATIONAL®

Vacation Industry Review

is a quarterly publication for the international shared ownership industry, specifically targeted to resort developers; sales, marketing, and managerial professionals; key industry leaders; and members of homeowners' associations' boards, as well as other individuals interested in exploring this segment of the hospitality industry. With a circulation of more than 17,000, the magazine is distributed throughout North America, the Caribbean, South America, Asia, and elsewhere.

Vacation Industry Review reports on the development, financing, marketing, and management of shared ownership resorts, and on mixed-use projects with a shared ownership component. The magazine covers products and services of interest to the industry, the activities of prominent individuals and companies within the industry, environmental and operational issues of property managers and developers, and news from Interval International.

Digital versions of the printed editions are accessible at resortdeveloper.com. Readers can flip through the pages, search entire publications, print the magazines, and download them in PDF format. Notification links are emailed to subscribers when new electronic issues become available.
